

The AngelMed Guardian System is designed to detect and then alert patients to the early warning signs that may indicate a serious ischemic event. Note that the system has not yet been proven to perform these functions.

Basic ECG analysis (HR, PR, QRS, ST, T) and rhythm analysis (sinus, irregular, and other statistical parameters)